Sorry about the price increase!

Mr. Joseph Steinberg
Camp Ramah In Wisconsin
Conover, Wisconsin

Dear Joe:

It was a pleasure to hear from you -- even twice on the same day. Of course I realize that, unless I'm in a position to do something for you again, this is probably the last time I'll hear from you this summer!

We will be happy to accommodate your friends. The price without daily maid service for students who are not New York University students is $3.50 per day, or $5.00 for single occupancy. Your letter regarding the three high school boys is somewhat confusing. Do they each want single occupancy of a double room?

We will house all of them in Silver. I trust you will be able to give them instructions as to how to get here.

I hope you are continuing to enjoy your safari in the "glorious mid-west".

Sincerely,

George

P.S. What does Ramah mean?
